Date of submission

The online tax return should be submitted by May 18th, 2020 at the latest.

Extension

If due to circumstances you are unable to file your tax return before May 18th, 2020, you may apply for an extension. In this case you will receive two months of extension to file your tax return form. If the granted extension is insufficient, you may apply for an extension one more time for the maximum of two months. After this period, extension is only possible in the event of special circumstances.

Late tax returns

If you do not apply for an extension in time and do not file your tax return in time, an estimated assessment as well as a fine may be imposed. The fine will be no more than USD 1400.00. The amount depends on the number of times that you filed your tax return too late in the past.

Upload annexes

If applicable, you should upload photos or scans of the following annexes:

- > Annual statement of your income from employment, old age pension payments, etcetera.
- > Financial statements if you receive income from the operation of a business or practice of an occupation
- > Documents of proof regarding interest paid and other tax deductible items
